Read S'more & S'more & S'more

Read a recipe with an adult. Follow the directions. Make something tasty.

Complete a crossword or word search puzzle.

Go for a walk or a ride. Read the road, street, or store signs.

Play a board game that involves reading.

When you are eating breakfast, read the cereal box.

Watch a sporting event. Read the players' shirts and the scoreboard.

Choose a piece of mail to read. It can be a letter, a flyer or even a catalog.

Read the comic strips in the newspaper.

Read the weekly grocery flyer. Help an adult make a shopping list.

Read a joke or a riddle book. Tell some of your new jokes.

Create a scavenger hunt at home. Read the clues.

Look up the movie listings. Read the titles and the times they're playing.

Read HERE & THERE & EVERYWHERE

Keep all the lights off and read by flashlight.

Read in the shade of a tree.

Build a fort of blankets. Read inside.

Read a book while you are waiting for someone.

Visit your library. Find a comfortable spot to read.

Take a break from the sun and read by the pool or at the beach.

My Summer Reading

We would love for you to share your opinion on the books that you have been reading this summer! As you read a few of your books, add the title here. Color in the stars to give it a rating. Five stars would mean, "This is the BEST book ever!" Then you could write a quick book review about your book.
